Rules: Current NRA rules shall govern. Competitors will score each others targets. Challenge fee is $1.00: if challenges sustained, fee will be refunded. A three person jury system will be used for challenges. Use of plug type scoring gauge will be restricted to range officers. Eye and Ear protection required. Targets B6 and B8 will be used.

Classification: All competitors will be classified according to current NRA classification card or temporary score book. Competitors will not be divided into categories. High Masters and Masters, as classes, will shoot as open if less than 5 enter or they will be combined to make a class. Unclassified competitors will shoot as a class if 5 or more enter, with High Masters/Masters if less. If less than 5 competitors in any other class, the class will be combined with the next higher class. A “Tyro” class will be provided for new shooters both juniors and adults. These entry level shooters include those with little/no significant training/experience. Cash awards for the “Tyro” class will be based on the number of shooters in the class.

Awards: Cash awards will be given as follows:

Matches 1-16

From the North Take I-465 South. Take the Crawfordsville Rd exit. Keep left at the fork to continue toward Crawfordsville Rd (Highway 136). Turn right onto Crawfordsville Rd and head west. (red line on map below)

From the South Take I-465 North. Take the Crawfordsville Rd exit (16A). Turn left onto Crawfordsville Rd and head west. (blue line on map below)

Take first available left turn at MCF&G sign (approx. 100 yards past stoplight that looks like a private gravel driveway and is on the east side of Eagle Creek Bridge). If you pass Girls School Road, you have gone too far. Follow gravel road south down along Eagle Creek and under the abandoned railroad bridge, where the road will curve back east. The clubhouse and range are at the end of the road.
